Sample products were brought by these women entrepreneurs which were also displayed before the Committee. The Committee expressed satisfaction that these women entrepreneurs are mostly engaged in producing and marketing handloom and handicraft products and are willing to go outside the country to learn the actual requirement of the global market.

The Committee decided that the selected beneficiaries shall submit their copies of Pan Cards and Pass Ports to the Commissioner of Industries & commerce which are the primary documents for each individual to go outside the country.

The meeting ended with vote of thanks of the chair.
